CORNER MAIN AND MARKET STREETS

GOODYEAR

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buckley were business callers in Pawtucket over the week end.

One of the worst storms of the season swept over Goodyear last Saturday. It tied up all business and made traveling practically impossible.

Saturday evening there were no pictures in the club hall, as it was impossible for the operator and picture to come, but on Sunday evening pictures were shown as usual.

Wednesday night was observed as ladies' night in Goodyear bowling allies.

The state policemen who are in town have not been able yet to locate the burglar who entered Goodyear cafeteria Thursday last between the hours of 3 and 5 a. m.

At present 30 families are waiting for tenements which the construction crew are building.

Mrs. Charles Sherman was a visitor in Pawtucket this week.

Floyd and LeRoy Bailey were callers in Norwich Wednesday.

William Hunter was a business caller in Pawtucket last Friday.

The local members of the Danielson State guard, Company C, were pleased to hear that they are to go into camp for five days from July 19 to 24 in accordance with the military emergency board's ruling.

Robert W. Boys was in Boston Saturday to attend the automobile show.
LeRoy Bailey and Floyd Bailey spent the latter part of the week in Boston and attended the large automobile show in Mechanics hall.

The Fisher company left town last week after completing the large textile picture which they have been working on for several weeks.

The new Goodyear schoolhouse, which is needed very much, is to be started as soon as the completion of the agreement is reached.

A whist was held in Club hall on Thursday evening for the benefit of the Boy Scouts. First prizes were awarded Mrs. William Perry and Mr.
Richard. Dancing was enjoyed after the whist.

The body of L. E. Washburn, 81, was brought here Thursday from Chelsea, Mass., for burial in the Springs cemetery.

Miss Lottie Shepherd is recovering orial hospital a few days ago, is

DANIELSON AND PUTNAM

DANIELSON

It was stated Friday that it is probable that the case of Miss Gertrude Wardell vs. the town of Killingly likely will come to trial in the superior court at Putnam March 30, although that date is not yet definitely fixed. Miss Wardell, formerly a music teacher in the town's schools, is suing the town for $3,000, as the result of being discharged from its employment before the end of a school year and for alleged injury to her prospects as a teacher as the result of her release by the town school committee.

Though an assignment was expected in the superior court at Putnam Friday in the case of Arthur B.
Prentice vs. Marinda C. Butler Robinson, executrix of the will of her husband, Mr. Prentice Robinson, none was made because of Mr. Prentice's illness at that time. The case will not be heard this term of court.

Board with or without rooms at the King-Tripp lodge, No. 7 Spring street.
Adv.

Textiles, Their Selection and Cost, will be the subject of an address before the members of the Killingly Woman's club by Maud E. Hayes, of Storrs college, at next Wednesday afternoon's meeting.

Guinea pigs are being raised by George Peppie, who finds a ready market for them for use in experiments in hospitals and other such institutions.

Heavy fog and rain during Friday contributed in a marked way to loosening the grip of the ice that covers all of this territory. Many days must elapse before the roads will be hereabouts are free from snow and ice. On country roads hereabouts drifts four and five feet deep are still to be found.

Town officials are anxious for a well attended special town meeting next Tuesday afternoon when the matter of making an appropriation for a school house at Goodyear will come up for action. The project has strong support and an effort will be made to get out all of those who wish to see Killingly provide proper school facilities for Goodyear.

Representatives C. A. Young and L.
Lorne Greig and First Selectman John A. Gilbert and Judge James N. Bucker are the delegates named by the Republicans of Killingly as the delegates to the state convention to be held at New Haven this month to elect delegates to the national convention.

The republican town committee as now constituted is made up of Attorney B. L. Herick, chairman, J. J.
Morin, L. N. Greig, F. L. Bennett, Arnold P. Rich, Ralph C. Young and James Bacon.

Mr. Bacon was added to the committee to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation, filed when he became postmaster at Goodyear, of Alma Forcier.

Postmaster Raymond Allen's reports show a substantial increase in the amount of money order business being transacted in change of the postoffice business done a year ago.

In January of last year 535 orders were issued and 324 paid, while in February of last year 625 orders were issued and 281 paid. In January 1920 the number of orders issued was 925 and 410 were paid. In February of this year 822 orders were issued and 399 paid.

Therefore during the first two months of the present year 1747 orders were issued and 899 paid, whereas during the first two months of last year only 929 orders were issued and only 695 paid.

Sigmar Elmas, the Goodyear Albanian who is charged with assaulting Milton Littlefair, of Railroad street, Danielson, with intent to kill, was in the court for trial at the superior court here Friday afternoon.

His counsel, Attorney Charles L. Torrey, of Putnam, demurred to the complaint, but this was over-ruled and probable cause found for holding El-mas for trial at the superior court.

Bail was fixed at $500, and Elmas was released. It was testified during production that amount in cash and that the two men crossed over the possession of a truck. There were words a struggle between the two and, as Littlefair broke away, an open-handed slap in the face was given by El-mas. He then grabbed up a piece of iron rod and struck Littlefair over the head with the weapon. Littlefair was not in court at Friday afternoon's hearing.

Journymen barbers, who made demands at the opening of this week for shorter working hours, a higher fixed weekly wage and a division of the profits of their work after they had turned in $32 each week have reached an agreement with the master barbers. The men will get the fixed weekly wage and a shorter course but no division if the profits above $32.

Evening grosebacks have again made their appearance in Danielson, as has been the rule for several years past during the early spring.

Danielson chapter of the Western Star has adopted resolutions tending to the death of Mrs. Mabel Todd, four years a member of the organization.

William McDermott will leave next week for Grand Rapids, Mich., where he will be at work for the firm he represents for a number of weeks.

Dr. Hugh B. Campbell of Norwich has agreed to come to Danielson as often as once a month to conduct clinics in the interest of persons who are suspected of being afflicted with tuberculosis or who are in the early stages of the disease.

Miss Miriam Boomhower, visiting nurse, is anxious to find quarters in which such clinics, of great value in protecting and improving public health, may be held.

"Souvenir" W. H. Taylor is living up to his slogan "Keep your memory green" by mailing St. Patrick's day cards to friends in Danielson and surrounding towns.

Henry Littlebridge is seriously ill at his home on Riverview.

Friday's storm helped wonderfully toward clearing the trolley line of snow and ice and brings nearer the time for resumption of service, which is expected next week.

April 23 is the tentative date for the Killingly High School Junior promenade.

Quantities of wearing apparel were collected by the members of the Ladies' Benevolent society of the Congregational church to send for the relief of sufferers in the Near East.

Mrs. M. V. Woodworth will have the members of the Ladies' Reading circle at her home for a meeting Monday afternoon.

D. E. Jette and C. W. Atwood, sewer committee of the court of burgeesses, have asked for bids for the construction of the sewer recently authorized at North street and in that section of the borough where the Connecticut Mills Company is erecting dwellings for its employees.

Mrs. Edith Fisher is the newly elected president of the Ladies' Aide society of the Methodist church.

Superintendent Robert W. Boys of the Goodyear Mills company is arranging for a visit with relatives in England. He will be away a number of weeks.

The Windham County National Bank announced Friday that a supply of the 1-4 per cent Third Liberty Loan Bonds with all coupons attached has been received and will be ready Monday for exchange for the temporary bonds of the Third loan now held by subscribers. There will be no charge for this service.

PUTNAM

Two uncontested divorces were granted, cases assigned and a few other suits on the calendar disposed of at Friday's session of the superior court, Judge George E. Kimman, presiding.

Helen Hazzard of North Woodstock was granted a decree, on the ground of desertion, from George Hazzard, now of Southbridge, whom she married in Webster, in 1911.

The couple lived at Dudley, Mass., where their child was born. Hazzard deserted her, Mrs. Hazzard testified and they have since lived apart. Mrs.
Hazzard told Judge Kimman that she knew of no reason why her husband should desert her.

Mrs. Hazzard said that after he deserted her, her husband went to live with a woman in Southbridge. He has since been married and has a child. Mrs. Hazzard said she had not seen her husband since he deserted her, she said, since two months after he left.

Justice Charles M. Perrin, testifying in Mrs. Hazzard's behalf, said that he had known Hazzard for years and was familiar with what had been done in the court in Woodstock. Asked by the court as to whether Hazzard had ever said anything to him about going back to live with Mrs. Hazzard, the witness replied that Hazzard had told him "I was a better woman."

David R. Hicks of Woodstock was another witness in Mrs. Hazzard's behalf. Attorney Howard C. Bradford represented Mrs. Hazzard.

John Jodoin, who represents himself as employed at New Bedford, Mass., setting up mill machinery, was allowed a divorce, on the ground of adultery, from Mary C. Jodoin, formerly of Central Village, now of Goodyear.

The couple were at Mooseup January 31, 1916, and lived together for eight years in villages of the town of Plainfield before the husband left her, sixteen years ago. Mr. Jodoin said that he left his wife when he felt a better life than she was leading. He said that she was unfaithful and has since lived apart from her.

"I have not seen her in 15 years," Mr. Jodoin testified on Friday, "and she was the one who wrote me a letter to come to a Massachusetts town and get out of her home. I went after the boy and have since lived with her bringing up," Mr. Jodoin said.

Arthur Herick of Goodyear, testified that he knew Mrs. Jodoin and that she was married at his home in Goodyear. Mr. Herick testified that Mrs. Jodoin is known under the name of Mrs. Bowen in Goodyear, and explained that Bowen was a brother of his (Herick's) wife. Mr. Herick is now dead. Mr. Herick testified that Mrs. Jodoin has a son eight years of age and that she and Bowen had lived together as man and wife.

Mr. Jodoin testified that he had lived at the local postoffice and outside work at Goodyear, testified that he knows Mrs. Jodoin and that she goes under the name of Mrs. Bowen.
Mr. Jodoin said that she had admitted to him that her name was not Jodoin and that she had never been married to Bowen.

Judge Kimman ordered the decree on the grounds of adultery. Attorney Harvey E. Back was counsel for Mr. Jodoin.

Court adjourned until next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, when the jury will be in attendance.

The first case assigned for next week is that of Jodoin vs. Jodoin, adm. vs. Charles Combs, of the town of Plainfield. Mr. Jodoin is claiming damages for the death of his father, Charles Jodoin, who was killed in an automobile accident near Dayville while at his work for the state. Mr.
Jodoin's home was in Danielson.

The Jordan case will be followed by that of Bridget Ainsworth vs. Bernard Kangley, this having to do with the settlement of an estate. This case is assigned for March 23.

Next Thursday's assignments are:
Samuel L. Ide, et al. vs. Week Cieles first case, and Retail Grocers' Syndicate vs. Talabac and Talabac, second case. The two latter cases are assigned for March 23, and the jury will be in attendance.

For Tuesday, March 23, the assignment is that of Thomas E. Hatch vs. Williams and Co. The second case for Tuesday, March 23, is that of Guy L. Baker vs. John T. Ryan. This latter is an automobile accident case.

For Wednesday, March 24, the assignment, before a jury, is that of Harold C. Stone vs. P. James Riley.

On Friday Judge Kimman ordered that the marriage of Vasilis Papayonis and Vasilis Papayonis be annulled. Mrs. Papayonis, a resident of Danielson, appeared in court here on Friday of last week asking for an annulment and the case was heard at that time.

Judgment by default was entered in the case of Quaker City Rubber Company vs. Albert. The amount being $188.90. Attorney Bradford Danielson, of Mooseup, appearing in court Friday morning for the plain-tiff's company.

At the annual meeting of Heca Company, No. 1, Harry W. Chappie was elected foreman, James Barnes first assistant foreman and Warren Ames second assistant foreman. Herbert Owens was elected secretary and Harry Morse, treasurer.

Charles Wiggins, 24, assistant headmaster at Pomfret school, has resigned his position, to become effective at the end of the spring term. Mr.
Wiggins is to be headmaster at the Notch school in Boston, this being one of the foremost select schools for boys in the country. Mr. and Mrs.
Wiggins have been very popular in

promenade.

collected by the members of the La-
relief of sufferers in the Near East.

Pomfret, where they will be missed.
Friday brought the kind of a storm that the weather sharps have been looking for for weeks—rain, fog, and southerly winds. The storm had all the earmarks, if a storm has such things, of the kind that usually starts in January, only it was a storm of two months late in getting here this year.
The snow and ice fairly melted away under the effects of the storm, which is expected to make travel very much easier, though bringing the flood menace right to the forefront.

Members of the Putnam Country
